Change in Eltel's Group Management Team

Elin Otter, Director of Communications and Investor Relations and member of Eltel's Group Management Team, has decided to leave Eltel for a position outside the company. A recruitment process to find her successor has been initiated.

Elin will remain in her current role until May 2024, at the latest.

"I want to thank Elin for her valuable contributions to Eltel. She has played a very important role in our leadership team, contributing to our strategy and its implementation. With her energy and drive, Elin has strengthened our external and internal communications, as well as our investor relations, and brought sustainability high up on our agenda," said Håkan Dahlström, President and CEO at Eltel AB.
