Pamela Lundin new Director of Business Development at Eltel

Pamela Lundin has been appointed Director of Business Development at Eltel and will be part of the Group Management Team as of 13 March. The newly instituted Business Development function will be guided by Pamela's leadership.

With 25 years in senior positions, Pamela has extensive leadership experience. She joins Eltel from Enercon, one of the world's leading companies in the wind energy industry, where she currently is CEO of their Swedish, Norwegian and Finnish operations.

– With Pamela, our Business Development team will be even better equipped to identify and pursue new opportunities. As a driven leader with an exceptional track record and innovative approach, I am confident Pamela will create new opportunities through her customer-focused mindset, and take us closer to sustainable profitable growth, said Håkan Dahlström, President and CEO of Eltel AB.

– I am happy to join Eltel at this exciting time as we start a journey towards a sustainable future powered by new energy sources. I am eager to bring my energy and expertise to the table, and work in collaboration with my new team and the organisation to make a meaningful impact both for Eltel and for the society, said Pamela.

The Business Development unit will work closely with the country units in Eltel to develop and implement current and new business concepts to increase our sustainable growth. In addition, they will work to improve the synergies between the countries, and to take advantage of the expertise and know-how of each country.
