The Nomination Committee has interviewed all current members of the Board of Directors. The Nomination Committee has applied rule 4.1 in the Code as its diversity policy, in which it is stated that the Board of Directors is to have a composition appropriate to the company's operations, phase of development and other relevant circumstances, and further, that the board members elected by the shareholders' meeting are collectively to exhibit diversity and breadth of qualifications, experience and background and that the company is to strive for gender balance on the board.

The Nomination Committee considers that all proposed members of the Board of Directors are independent in relation to the company and its management, and that all proposed members of the Board of Directors, except Joakim Olsson, are independent in relation to the company's major shareholders.

The Nomination Committee proposes, in accordance with the Audit Committee's recommendation, that KPMG AB is elected as auditor for the company for the period until the end of the next Annual General Meeting.

The Nomination Committee's Statement

According to the opinion of the Nomination Committee, the proposed Board of Directors have with regard to the company's ownership, operations, phase of development and other relevant circumstances an appropriate composition characterized by diversity and breadth of qualifications, experience and background.

The Nomination Committee considers that the number of other board assignments held by each of the members of the Board of Directors does not impede any of the board members from actively participating in the work of the Board of Directors of Eltel.

The Nomination Committee's ambition is that the proportion of female board members shall be increased within the next years.
